In fact, for the first 30 of his 33 years on earth, people in the marketplace weren't even aware they were rubbing shoulders with the Creator of the universe! Jesus didn't go on a campaign trail to secure this mission. He didn't raise his hand wildly, saying Pick me, pick me! For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. (John 3:17). The incarnation--God the Son taking on humanity--would not be a lucrative career move for Jesus. It was not for something bigger and better. It actually was a huge step down to the role of a humble man. In fact, the Bible says that though he was in the form of God, he made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men (Philippians 2:6-7). When Jesus Christ opened the door to receive his Father's plan, he literally...
