Financial Planner is the perfect companion to the Own It! For First time Home Buyers workbook. Managing your money is the first step toward financial management. Finance includes money, as well as investments. Investments? Yes, investments. You may not have them now, but you can have them. Money management is a discipline. You have to want to do it. You have to decide to do it. And then you have to do it. No one can do it for you. Make the commitment now to do it. It s the best thing you can do for yourself. It won t be easy. Breaking bad habits never is. Creating good habits to replace bad one ones will reward you with the financial freedom you ve always craved. You ll have money to spend. You ll have money saved. You can also have money to invest. Most importantly, you ll have control over your spending. My 89 year old Aunt loves telling the story about her first job. It was in the early 1940 s. She was a teenager. She was paid five dollars a week. Form the first week, her mother (my grandmother) would take three dollars a week from her. That left her with two dollars for the week. My Aunt learned at an early age how to spend her money wisely. This was my grandmother s intent. This helped my Aunt and Uncle to buy their first and only home. They had a combined income of about one hundred and ten dollars. My Aunt was able to run her house and save money. They bought their house for eighteen thousand dollars - all cash....
