Owners and operators are primarily responsible for cleaning up Tank Owners or Operators contamination from leaks in their underground storage tanks. However, and State Indemnification according to the director of EPAs UST Program, many of these Funds Generally Pay for owners operators, most of which are small, independent businesses, do not Cleanups have the financial capacity to pay for expensive cleanups. EPA estimates that the average remediation cost per site has been about 125, 000, but costs sometimes have exceeded 1 million. Under RCRA, tank owners and operators must maintain evidence of financial responsibility for carrying out cleanup actions, using one or more of a variety of mechanisms, including commercial insurance, corporate guarantee, letter of credit, qualification as a self-insurer, or an EPA-approved state financial assurance fund. For commercial insurance, the owner operator usually pays premiums as well as a deductible amount and or co-payments before the policy begins to cover remediation costs up to some limit of coverage per leak incident. To assist owners operators in funding cleanups, as of November...
