Excerpt: . . . esignated ozone non-attainment zone. Reformulated gasoline is the most important issue for people in southeastern Wisconsin at this time, from my opinion and just from the constituent response that we have been receiving, and it has been an issue like this for a good month and a half. Small business owners and families in southeastern Wisconsin want to know why they pay more for gasoline than any other region in the country, and at the height of this crisis was the fact that Wisconsin consumers were paying an average of 40 cents a gallon more for the price of gasoline than the national average. I, along with Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner, released a report from the CRS--which is the non-partisan research branch of Congress--which has been widely cited throughout the last month and a half. Nowhere in this report is collusion and price gouging listed as an underlying cause for high prices. That indeed is the goal of the ongoing Federal Trade Commission investigation. But likewise, I have an internal report dated June 5,...
