Geological Survey, 2011 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)713657545 Subject: Climatic changes -- Research. Excerpt: . . . Goals for USGS Global Change Science The six high-priority goals are developed in more detail below, starting with a statement summarizing the specific societal issues and challenges faced or anticipated. A vision statement and a series of the key scientific research questions pertinent to the goal follow. Finally, a set of short-term and longer term strategic actions are described that, if implemented, will advance USGS science from its current state toward the desired future state articulated in the vision statement. Goal 1. Improve understanding of past global changes in support of policy and management decisions Since its inception in 1879, the USGS has conducted research regarding what is today called global change. The Bureau has sought to understand variability and changes in land and water resources, geologic processes, and other aspects of the Earth system. Its scientists have carried out studies of past and ongoing changes in diverse environments throughout the United States and across the globe. These...
