Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Early Motor-racing in South Africa: My Dad s Pictorial Journey: Pictures of my dad s early racing (from his album) Gotta work on the nut behind the wheel before you start fixing bolts on the car The track is home away from home. You smell that race fuel, rubber, and when you hear those engines scream. it s music to your ears. Also the love of the racing family!! A passion for anything will ensure success, because the desire will point out the means to get there. - c It has been said that motor racing shares in common with sex the distinction of being one of the most popular, most maligned and least understood of human activities. Produced by craig lock I was born with methanol (and the smell of it) running through my veins. MOTOR RACING - A BIRD S EYE VIEW Lesson 1 Hazel Lock Colenso Rd Newlands 1965 Having a boy friend who is completely mad about racing cars, all shapes and sizes and about me (only one size), I was persuaded to go with him to our local car racing event, which is held at Killarney race track, some ten miles out of Cape Town. As he was going to assist with the spanner-holding in one of the driver s pits, he asked me to keep a record of the lap times and to make a comprehensive chart of the results of the various races. Unfortunately, I was so captivated by the racing setting and scene that times and charts didn t enter into the race at all and this is now the afternoon (my first visit) at the races was seen by...
