Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Parallel Between Intemperance and the Slave-Trade There is a domestic tyrant now traversing the fairest districts of our country - consuming its young and vital energies; treading down the blossom of its hopes; undermining its free institutions; setting at defiance all its authorities; multiplying engines of torture; fencing off grave yards, and breathing pestilence upon every acre of our goodly heritage. This man-devouring shape, If shape it may be called, which shape has none, Distinguishable in member, joint, or limb, Fierce as ten furies, terrible as hell, is Intemperance. Other lords have had dominion over us, but here is the very Nero of the horrid dynasty, and we must dethrone the despot, or we are lost. If we sit still but a little longer, and look quietly on, while this scourge is raging like a tempest of fire in all our borders, the fourth of July will indeed come; but we shall have no independence to celebrate. Our liberties will exist only in the song of the drunkard. Fuit Illium, (that they were,) will be written upon all the monuments of our glory. I have long thought, that, in this state of things, a great advantage might be gained by comparing intemperance with some other terrible scourge of humanity which has fallen under deep and universal reprobation. Such a scourge is the African Slave-trade; and the position which I mean to take is this, that the prevalent use of ardent spirits in the United States, is a worse evil at this moment than the slave-trade ever was in the height of its horrible prosperity. The bare mention of the slave-trade is enough to excite...
