

Christphers Story

By J Telfer

Chipmunka Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 184 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.0in. x 0.6in. The Child Within the Man By Julie Telfer ISBN: 978-1-84747-128-4 Published: 2007 Pages: 224 Key Themes: Kanners autism, carers story Description Christophers Story was written for my son in the hope of raising awareness of (Kanners) autism and severe challenging behaviour. It is primarily a story of love and of a determination to remain together as a family, when the only alternative offered was residential care. The book details our fight to secure schooling, accommodation and social services support - the later issue has yet to be resolved. I would truly love others to look beyond the disability and see Christopher for who he really is. I hope this book goes some way towards making this a reality. Julie Telfer Book Extract In September 1991 Christopher had reached the appropriate age for attending nursery, but it was during this time that we suddenly discovered that his complex needs would seriously impact upon the services which were readily available to other children. Nursery placements in the area were typically well sought after but as children with speech, social and learning difficulties are generally given priority, we were...
