The series of readings reported in this chapter closed with a passage which the subject was asked to read carefully to himself and to repeat word for word to the phonograph. The passage was as follows: Then the magician sat down and began to talk with Aladdins mother: My good sister, said he, do not be surprised that you have never seen me during all the time you have been married to my brother Mustapha. I have been forty years absent from this country; and during that time have traveled in many lands until finally I settled in Africa. The purpose of these directions was to check once more the complete understanding of what was read and to secure a record of the effect of a demand for word-for-word reproduction as contrasted with the earlier, vaguer demand, report everything you can remember. Complete...
