His skull was fractured and his left leg broken. He was removed to the General Hospital. The driver of the machine was arrested and charged with reckless driving. The injured boy is the son of Harry J. Decker, drug clerk in the store of Lakamp Sentker, Madison and Grandin roads, East Walnut Hills. Otto Otten, druggist at Woodburn avenue and Chapel street, has been named a member of the organization committee of a new state bank, which is being formed by Woodburn avenue business men. A rather unusual accident befell Jacob Kessell, clerk in the store of Theodore Rosenthal, Eighth and Vine streets, last Saturday. Kissell leaned on the edge of the marble top of the soda fountain and the slab upended, striking him...
