Not illustrated. 1878 Excerpt: . . . SEEKING A SIGN. Lesson read from 2 Kings v. Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. --Matthew xii. 38. In modern times we find occasionally an impatience in studying the histories of old times; but the chapter I read to you, though quaint and inconceivable to us in some respects, is still full of wisdom and instruction. There you see what men thought about God and the gods of old times--how men found out that there is no God but God, yet still thought that there was no God but the God of Israel, and that His jurisdiction extended not beyond the bounds of their own parish. This exclusive feeling is often set forth even in the sublime liturgies of the Church, and the people open their mouths but not their understandings...
