Picture This Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 162 pages. Dimensions: 10.9in. x 8.5in. x 0.4in. Every Canteen Kate story ever published--22 in all--is collected for the first time in The Lost Art of Matt Baker (Vol. 1), judiciously restored and enlarged 20 percent over their original published size. A rich introduction by veteran comics writer Steven Ringgenberg provides insightful historical and biographical context, and a bonus gallery spotlights Bakers skills as a cover artist. Unlike the jingoistic comics typically published during the Korean War, Canteen Kate tales were designed to be morale-boosting screwball fun. Volume 2 in The Lost Art of Matt Baker series will collect his entire output for the Wartime Romances comic, and Volume 3 will provide a sampling of his best war, western, and suspense stories (forthcoming in 2014). The Lost Art Books series aims to preserve this cultural heritage by re-introducing these artists to new generations of working illustrators, historians, and admirers of...
