Do we dare put God on the stand and ask him to tell what he knows about us? This daring man called God, what could God testify. He couldn t testify to Paul s sinlessness--for Paul stood self-confessed as the chief of sinners. He could not testify to perfect service--for Paul was on record as saying when I would do good evil is present with me always. He couldn t testify to a life passed in perfect peace with his fellowworkers--for he had a break with Barnabus and misunderstanding with Mark. Well what could God witness for him? This-- Here is a man who has done his honest best. That man can afford to be bold who knows before God he has done his...
